A Bill,

Enabling the president of the United States to make restitution to the government of Denmark for the capture and condemnation of the Danish brigantine called the Henrick and her cargo.

Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the sum of dollars be, and the same hereby is appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to enable the president of the United States to make such restitution as shall appear to be just and equitable, to the government of Denmark, for the capture of the Danish brigantine called the Henrick, by an armed vessel of the United States, in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, and for the condemnation and sale of the said brigantine and her cargo, by order of the vice 11 admiralty court in the British island of Saint Christopher: Provid.

12 ed, the government of Denmark shall make compensation for the 13 seizure of certain prizes captured by the armed vessels of the United 14 States, during the late revolutionary war with Great Britain, and 15 carried into the port of Bergen, in the year one thousand seven 16 hundred and seventy nine, and which, by order of the Danish go-17 vernment, were, without a judicial trial, restored to their original 18 proprietors.
